DISTRICT OF MARYLAND

DEPUTY

Motion For Appropriate Relief

Comes. Here and Now on Nov. 3, 2022 request Judge to take Judicial Notice that pursuant to U.S.C. Rule(26) Discovery and Breach of Duty in accordance with MD Rule and Attorney Professional Conduct request for Appropriate Relief for reason Here to.

1. Counsel in effectiveness of counsel violates my constitutional rights and as a request cause's Constitutional injuries.

See : attachment

(1)

Haven't gotten one piece of discovery Coerced me into plea without affording me procedural due process as guaranteed under U.S. Constitution, for example 1.

Pursuant to Rule 26 as requested Mr.
McKenna had a duty to disclose discovery.

"B" Discovery Scope and Limits

Parties may obtain discovery... Which did not happen in this case

2. Which states the party seeking discovery has not had ample opportunity to obtain information about discovery in above captioned case as requested

3. ... As it pertains to documents tangible things and material evidence and he failed to investigate material evidence as requested

4. Pursuant Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure "Evidence" This foreclosure instituted by counsel on record with the court Mr. McKenna abridge my constitutional rights under, by directly violating procedural rules to wit discovery.

And affords me Ineffective Assistance Counsel set in Strickland vs. Washington He also breaches his duty and ethical code as set out in Maryland Rules of Professional Conduct

Wherefore defendant respectfully request that this court issue and order that I receive discovery in it's entirety and praise for appropriate relief
